4. Discuss applicants requiring education review.

a) Irina Abramians

It was noticed that Dr. Abramians is incomplete and has had an open application for many months. Dr. Paul requests that the Board change the procedure regarding sending of SPP and Work Agreements. This would allow the office to better monitor the applicants better. Dr. Paul requests the office to call Dr. Abramians supervisor and inform her regarding the status of application and the importance of completion.

b) Danielle Agnello: Waiting on the completion of PLUS.

c) Gretchen Arian: Waiting on the completion of PLUS.

d) Hope Bagley: Waiting on the completion of PLUS.

e) Nicole Dionsio: Waiting on the completion of PLUS.

f) Deborah Dueck:

Ms. Gleich noticed that Dr. Dueck is a graduate of California Southern University, which is an entirely online program and does not meet the requirements of NAC 641, which states requirements cannot be met entirely online. Ms. Gleich will notify Dr. Dueck in writing and close the application at the February 23, 2018 Board meeting.

5. Meeting schedule for committee

Meeting Scheduled for March 13, 2018

6. Other Items for Future Discussion

Dr. Paul requests if the Board can sponsor Grants.

Acceptance of PCSAS accreditation

Dr. Paul provided some background information regarding PCSAS, as learned through her work as with the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The Psychological Clinical Science Accreditation System is being developed as alternative accreditation for American Psychological Association (APA). The Standards for accreditation are different and more science based and focused on students who are focused on Research. Currently the programs that hold PCSAS accreditation are also APA accredited. University of Nevada, Reno is another APA accredited program that is interested in joining PCSAS and possibly letting the APA accreditation go. Ms. Gleich recommends to have a representative from UNR to discuss the pros and cons, and other important information the Board may be need to understand regarding programs and this accreditation.

7. Public Comment.

No public present

8. ADJOURNMENT

Dr. Owens move to Adjourn. Dr. Young second Committee vote 3-0-0.
